

Albert Rainforest Abomination

I'm flying!

Mysteriously I was transported by a gigantic stick with two horns sticking out of it and a red wide but thin string. Oh well anything better than being stuck at school. Though I'm still suspicious of that big stick anyway I saw many strange things one is called a tree apparently they (humans) use it to make furniture.

Brrrrrrrrrr! Did I mention its FREEZING! Oh! This is just despicable my shoes are getting brown. I just will not tolerate this!
