

ANGUS' RAINFOREST JOURNEY

Suddenly I am standing on a slippery, slimy waterfall and I look around me. I see from this view the forest floor crawling with life. Insects and cassowaries and other fascinating creatures are roaming around. I look above myself and guess what I see! A canopy wow! Hundreds of birds and monkeys and frogs are climbing in the trees.