

Christian In a rainforest

In this picture you can see I am about to jump in the water. This picture is set in the Daintree rainforest next to a waterfall. I know it looks funny because I am in my sport uniform. I literally have no idea how I ended up here. I think I might have been teleported here, but I don't know how. This waterfall looks amazing. Over the time I've been here I have seen so many waterfalls like this one. All this water has come from rain. The plants in the Daintree are so green. There is so much vegetation. The water is crystal clear. At least I'm happy to be here, it is absolutely wonderful. I hope I can stay here longer but if I can't stay, at least I saw this wonderful place.

By

Christian

