

Jeffrey slips in the rainforest

Mysteriously, I was teleported into the Daintree rainforest. My first suspect was a witch who was invisible. And my second suspect is it was just magic. Even though I was glad to go to the rainforest, I DIDN'T MEAN TO BE IN THIS POSITION! But eventually I balanced on the rock and explored the rainforest animal species and plant specimens. I found frogs, snakes and even the cassowary. Even the plants I saw were magnificent ferns, trees and weeds. It was so humid and hot in the rainforest that I began sweating so much.

Then as I jumped back at the rock I came from, I was immediately transported back to my school. I was disappointed that I could explore the other side. My question was why I got teleported into the rainforest. Was it real or a fantasy...?
