

Timothy's Adventure

I'm here in the Daintree Rainforest feeding this cassowary. It seems to like my food. I'm in my sports uniform but I don't know how? And why? But I'm happy just to be here with the cassowary with its beautiful blue and black feathers and with its little brown babies, in the luscious, dark, dense rainforest. With light green leaves and the birds in the trees with all the fauna. Also with all the vegetation. The little one ate my lunch! Ouch! Ha it bit my hand! That really hurt!
