

This is me in the Daintree Rainforest

This is me in the Daintree rainforest. I forgot my swimmers so I had to sit on the side of the waterfall. I have seen many fish including the deadly piranha and the pink dolphin. If I had brought my swimmers I would get all warm in the water because the Daintree is a tropical Rainforest.

By Ihona